NO PACKING OF JURIES
Now Draw Grand and Petit Jurors By Lot.
EN BANC RULING IS NOT OBSERVED
Gear Will Flock by Himself Next Term—Jurors Entitled to Pay.

Jurors will be drawn by lot in the first and third divisions of the First Circuit Court in the future. Yesterday Judge De Bolt summoned a grand and petit jury for the November term of court under the old Hawaiian jury law and Judge Robinson will also call a petit jury by lot today.

Both judges will sit concurrently during the November term and hear jury cases. De Bolt will have the criminal business to look after while Robinson will hear civil cases. This knocks out the en banc ruling of Humphreys and Gear, and the lengthy ruling of the latter judge in regard to jurors serving without pay will be honored only in the breach. While jurors will not be paid vouchers will be issued as usual, and the government will be left to provide for their payment through the legislature when it meets in February.

Judge Gear still sticks to his own ruling both as to the en banc decision and in regard to jurors. He will not hear term cases during November, but will take charge of the probate calendar, and if Gear persists in following his own ruling he will be permanently disbarred from hearing jury cases, unless the legislature amends the statute. It has been decided that one judge shall always sit in chambers during term time, so that Gear may perform this duty and still stick to his principles.

Longer working hours with no interruption of the jury's work was also announced for next term by Judge De Bolt yesterday. The grand jury of twenty-four was summoned yesterday to appear Monday morning, November 3rd, at 9:30 o'clock. The names were drawn by lot by Clerk Kellett in the presence of the Court, from fifty names which were taken at random off the tax and registration lists. The old law provided that these names be divided from among Hawaiian and foreign residents, but this was amended by the organic act and the names chosen are of those qualified to act and having a knowledge of the English language. Twenty-five petit jurors were also called for 1:30 o'clock of the afternoon of the 3rd.

"The calendar is in a congested condition," said Judge De Bolt yesterday, "and every effort will be made to clear it up. There are between four and five hundred cases upon the docket and while they cannot be heard all at one time, yet by hard work we expect to expedite litigation. For that reason during the November term, court will be convened at nine o'clock each morning. The first half hours will be devoted to ex parte motions, and if these do not take up the entire time, a divorce case will be heard each morning. The jury will sit from 9:30 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and its work will be absolutely free from interruption. Nothing else will be taken up during the sessions of the jury and we will begin promptly and stop on time unless there are cases which can be finished within half an hour. On Saturday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock and

MOURNING WIDOW UPBRAIDS COOK OF THE FRED J. WOOD

S. Oto, the Japanese Cook on the F. J. Wood.

Gusabara Tanbaro, Accused of the Murder of Capt. Jacobsen.

Mrs. J. Jacobsen, the widow of the murdered captain of the Fred J. Wood, yesterday morning severely upbraided S. Oto, the Japanese cook on the vessel, for not preventing the killing of her husband. The interview between Mrs. Jacobsen and the cook, whom the alleged murderer accuses of the crime, was of dramatic interest. Mrs. Jacobsen is still in deep mourning and carried her babe in her arms. Oto, immaculate in black clothes and with a white dress shirt, rose from his seat as the widow of the murdered captain began talking to him with pleading intensity. Both were in the United States Marshal's office waiting to be called as witnesses before the Federal grand jury which was considering the case in the room above.

The Japanese listened to Mrs. Jacobsen quietly and without a change in the expression of his face as she told him that he was to blame for the murder of her husband. He made no answer to her accusations even when she said that he might have prevented the murder and when she asked if he was not sorry. She asked also if the captain had ever mistreated him or if he had reason to complain and the Jap shook his head without speaking.

Finally when Mrs. Jacobsen told him that he might have taken the knife away and prevented the murder Oto was aroused to action, and replied that he had no opportunity to secure hold of the weapon. He illustrated this by showing how the wounds were inflicted, saying that it was all over before he could get near Gusabara. At this one of the sailor witnesses who was also in waiting sprang up and told the Jap that he was not telling the truth as he had made no attempt to save the captain. Oto evidently did not take the words of Mrs. Jacobsen very seriously or at least he gave no indication of any effect they might have had. Mrs. Jacobsen told him that while perhaps he had no part in the commission of the crime, yet it was his duty to have prevented it.

The interview between the two was rather loud at times, Mrs. Jacobsen being emphatic in her denunciation of the Jap's actions.

GRAND JURY IS DONE.

The grand jury completed its work yesterday afternoon and will make a report to Judge Estee this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Indictments will without doubt be returned against Gusabara for the murder of Captain Jacobsen, and against Jean Sabate for violation of the postal laws. There are also likely to be indictments against the two Chinese charged with counterfeiting, and for the violations of the internal revenue laws.

Oto, the Japanese cook whom Gusabara said had stabbed Captain Jacobsen, was before the grand jury as a witness, and his connection with the crime was not passed upon by that body. There is virtually no evidence against the cook excepting that of the cabin boy, and his statement is not believed, being full of contradictions.

THE PETIT JURY.

The petit jury was called yesterday morning and immediately excused until Thursday, when the criminal cases will be taken up. A special venire for fifteen additional trial jurors was issued yesterday, returnable Thursday morning. W. Von Gravemeyer, H. Cannon and H. P. Eakin were excused, not being American citizens. M. Phillips was excused upon a physician's certificate, and A. F. Clark because he is a Territorial official. H. M. Mott-Smith is in Paris and did not answer to his name.

KINAU EQUIPPED WITH BILGE KEELS
Capt. Thos. Clark of Wilder's to Return Here in Flagship.

Captain Thos. K. Clark, general superintendent of the Wilder's Steamship Company, leaves today in the Alameda for the coast on a pleasure trip. Captain Clark will return as a passenger in Wilder's steamer Kinau, leaving San Francisco about November 1. The captain will have an opportunity to rest in California for about ten or eleven days before starting again for home in the remodelled flagship of the Wilder fleet. She comes back as a coal burner, oil burners not having been installed. The decks, passenger accommodations and carrying space have all been changed, and she has also been equipped with bilge keels and will not roll as in the past. If the Kinau leaves on November 1 or 2, and makes the trip in the expected time, she will bring about two days' mail. The America Maru is due to arrive here on November 6, leaving San Francisco November 1. The Sonoma will be the next vessel after the America Maru to sail, arriving here on November 12, so that the Kinau's mail will sandwich in between nicely.

Treasurer Ready to Pay.

Treasurer Cooper yesterday sent a notice to Auditor Meyers to the effect that he was ready to pay ten per cent of the fire claims whenever the warrants were presented. The warrants have not yet been made out and will not be until there is a legal opinion upon the insurance cases.

If the Supreme Court sustains Judge Gear it will open up a number of similar suits and therefore no payment can be made until a decision is rendered. Mr. Cooper stated that while these legal questions were involved, the Treasury yet stood ready to make payment, as the $140,000 was to be used for that purpose, and the auditor must decide as to the issuance of warrants.

THE SPEEDIEST STEAM CRAFT IN THE WORLD

On the Hudson, between Ardsley and Irvington, on Saturday, September 6, the twin-screw yacht "Arrow," owned by Charles R. Flint, covered a nautical mile (6,080 feet) in 92 seconds! This speed is equivalent to 39 1-4 nautical miles an hour, or just over 44 statute miles. The boat was stripped for the race, and the course was laid out by white posts set on tripods on the New York Central tracks. No coal was carried save enough to run the boat for the trip. The tide was flood, just turning, and there was a puffly westerly wind. The "Arrow" is 130 feet long with 12 1-2 feet beam. Her engines are quadruple expansion and the indicated horsepower is approximately 4,000.
